International House (IH) is one of the largest groups of language schools in the world, and has been teaching English and 25 modern languages worldwide since 1953. The International House World Organization (IHWO) is a network of language schools worldwide that are committed to implementing high standards of quality and innovation in education and training.

The International House World Organisation is today made up of 150 schools in over 50 countries worldwide. Although these are independent schools, they all share the same philosophy and teaching approach. IH schools are all committed to implementing the highest standards of education and training and have an enduring determination to raise the standards of language teaching.

International House Newcastle offers a wide range of English courses which can be combined to suit all needs in an English language school and 'Centre of Excellence' in the centre of one of the most student friendly cities in Europe.

International House offers a range of accommodation options, including friendly homestay with a British family or more independence at en-suite student apartments in the city centre - just 5 minutes' walk from the school.
